Dear Class of 2018,

Congratulations on your graduation. CIU faculty and staff have invested in you and we are so thankful for our time with you!

We now ask you to remember that Victorious Christian Living is only attained through daily surrender. Be bold, stand for righteousness and truth and share the love of Jesus everywhere you go!

As I remembered you, I thought of Jeremiah 33:14 which says “Behold the days are coming, says the Lord, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised . . ."

As you leave the campus I pray that God performs a good thing through you! I pray for the Holy Spirit to empower your efforts. I pray you will be faithful to the ministry, and I pray you will remember Columbia International University as we train future students.

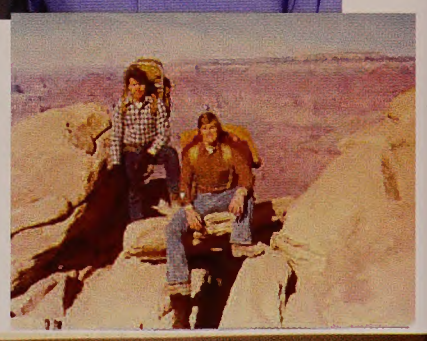
Blessings and Congratulations,

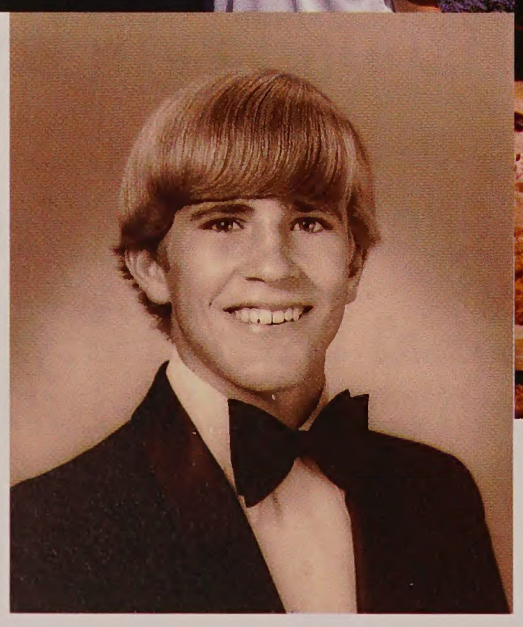
Mark A. Smith
President
Columbia International University

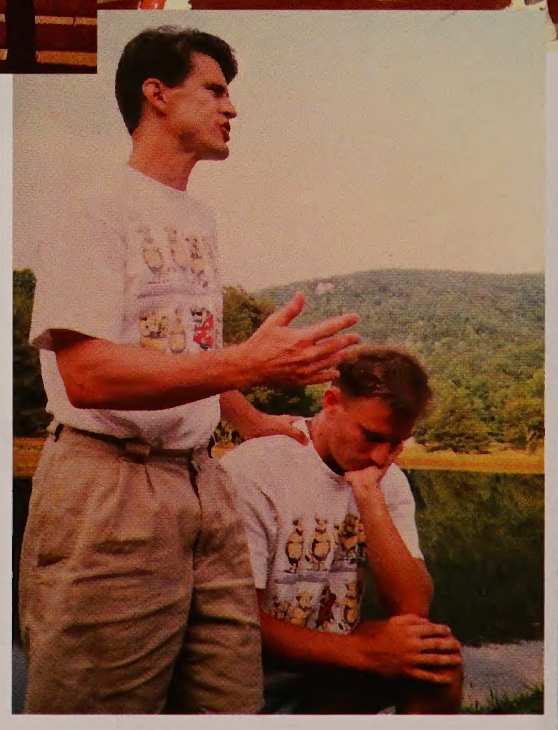
Mark A. Smith

Seventh President of Columbia International University

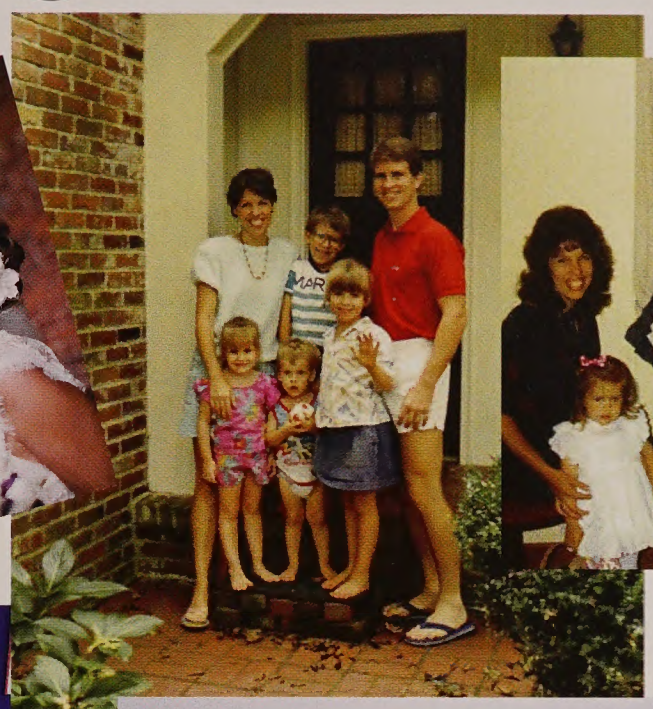
The 2018 Finial is dedicated to







Dr. William H. Jones



The 2018 Finial is proudly dedicated to the sixth president of Columbia International University and our current chancellor, Dr. Bill Jones.

Dr. Jones has endeared himself to the students of CIU over his 20+ years at CIU. From his chapel messages, to his passion for evangelism to his longing for a lost world through his leadership role at Crossover Communications International, Dr. Jones has demonstrated the true meaning of CIU's motto, "To Know Him and to Make Him Known."

Dr. Jones is focused on education. He earned his doctorate from Columbia Biblical Seminary & School of Missions, has written several books including, "Putting Together the Puzzle of the Old Testament" and "Putting Together the Puzzle of the New Testament." He is also the chair of the International Leadership Team of Crossover Communications International, a mission organization he cofounded in 1987. Crossover works to plant churches among unreached people groups.

Dr. Jones is also focused on the community. Many refer to him as a mentor, friend, teammate and an inspiration. In July of 2017, friends, family and colleagues filled Columbia City Council Chambers to show their support and appreciation for Dr. Jones as he received the Key to the City from Columbia Mayor Steve Benjamin.

Dr. Jones is married to Debby Jones, a speaker and author at women's conferences. Dr. Jones and Debby have four married children and seven grandchildren.

Congratulations, Dr. Jones for being 2018 Finial Dedicatee. We, the students of CIU, appreciate your years of service, for being our president, our chancellor, our friend.

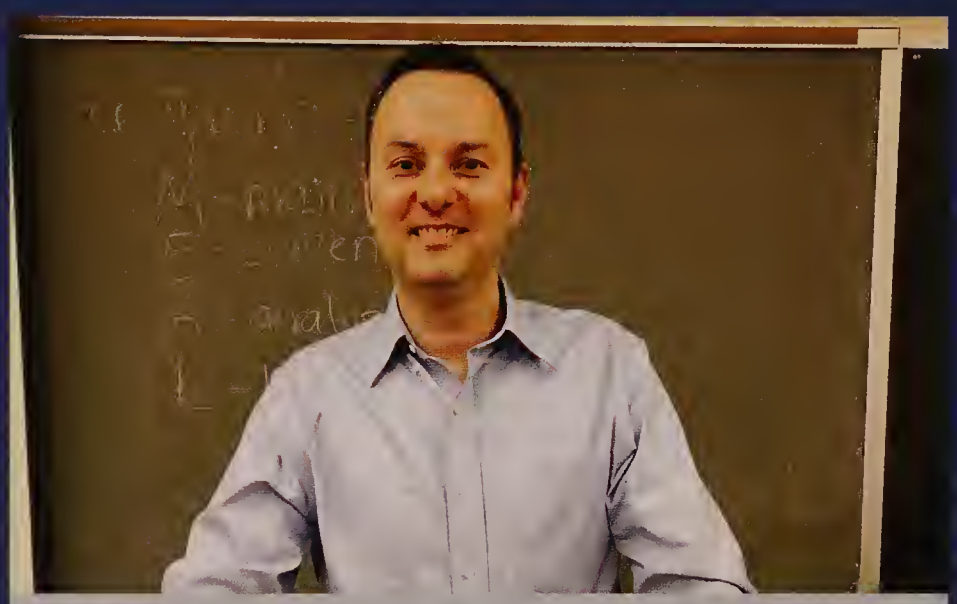
President Smith meeting with Governor Henry McMaster at the South Carolina Governor's Mansion on January 31st, 2018.

"Professor Mark McCann is the program director for CIU's 5 year MAT program! He has been teaching at CIU for 14 years and his favorite class to teach is Classroom Environment and Management."



"Meet Matt Decker, CIU's newest Psychology Professor! A unique fact about Matt is that he grew up in Ghana, West Africa. He loves teaching the Abnormal Psychology and Social Psychology classes."

"Dr. Beyer has been teaching at CIU for 33 years and is a familiar face around campus...The thing he loves most about CIU is its core values and the students."

Dr. David Croteau being interviewed by Dawndy Mercer Plank on WIS while talking about his book "Urban Legends of the New Testament.". He has taught at CIU for over 4 years, and says, "It's such an honor to be able to invest in these people who are going to change so many lives."

Meet Dr. David Olshine. His favorite class to teach is Counseling Youth and Families. In addition to teaching at CIU, he has written 18 books, three with Zondervan/ Harper and Row, pastored a college church, pastored youth for 18 years and is currently a part-time teaching pastor at Sandhills Community Church.

Dear Friends,

This yearbook that you hold in your hands has been in the works for quite a while, it is something I have considered since I began as the yearbook editor two years ago. Now many of us are on the verge of graduation. As I prepare to send in these last few pages of the yearbook I reconsider my theme and purpose in this years book. I hope you can all reflect on this year and see how God is working in your life.

This year's theme is about the moments that define our lives. In the life of King Arthur, when he pulled the sword from the stone that defined his life. Unfortunately few of us become king because of a magic sword, and few times in our lives does an action define us. However, as believers the act of believing in Christ, and our baptism are things that should be defining moments for us, commiting our lives to Christ is paramount.

Howard Pyle wrote 'The Story of King Arthur and His Knights' and within it at the winning of the sword Excalibur the author turns to the audience to deliver a blessing,

> "So endeth the story of the winning of Excalibur, and may God give unto you in your life, that you may have His truth to aid you, like a shining sword, for to overcome your enemies; and may He give you Faith (for Faith containeth Truth as a scabbard containeth its sword), and may that Faith heal all your wounds of sorrow as the sheath of Excalibur healed all the wounds of him who wore that excellent weapon. For with Truth and Faith girded upon you, you shall be as well able to fight all your battles as did that noble hero of old, whom men called King Arthur."
>
> - Howard Pyle,
> The Story of King Arthur and His Knights

I Pray God continues to show you the truth, give you strength and heal whatever sorrows you are in the midst of.

This Finial is brought to you in part by

Student Union

A special thank you to student union and the many photos they were able to supply the yearbook with. Also an extra special thank you to one particular member who was a constant inspiration throughout the making of this yearbook and always supportive when things were falling apart.
